APRIL 22-24 BIRD OF PREY DAYS

It's Raptors to the Rescue!

Learn about the special roles these birds play in protecting our ecosystems

Braddock Bay is home to one of the most spectacular raptor migrations in the country! Join Braddock Bay Raptor Research in this annual event to learn about hawks, eagles, falcons, owls and others, and support our conservation efforts.

Enjoy the display of raptor artwork from Honeoye Falls-Lima students, and find informative booths by local businesses and conservation organizations:

- The Birdhouse (birding/binoculars)
- Black Creek Wildlife Station (live owls)
- Braddock Bay Bird Observatory
- Genesee Valley Audubon Society
- Greenspark Solar
- Rochester Birding Association
- Hawk Migration Association of North America
- Messinger Woods Wildlife Care & Education Center (live raptors, Sat only)
- Wild Spirit Education (Sat only)
- Caricatures by Becky MacDonald (Sat only)

Check out our online auction for some great prizes!
All proceeds support the research and education work of Braddock Bay Raptor Research
