

ADOPT-A-HAWK SPONSORSHIP FORM

Braddock Bay Raptor Research's Adopt-a-Hawk program is a great way for people can contribute to the banding and research efforts of BBRR, and receive a special gift in return. When you choose to adopt a certain species of raptor, you will receive a photo certificate with information about a specific bird that was that was captured and banded at Braddock Bay. If that bird is ever recovered in the future, the sponsor will be contacted and updated on the status of that bird. You will also receive a species fact sheet and a one year membership to BBRR.

Adopt-a-Hawk sponsorships are available year round, and they make great gifts! Choose from the species listed below.
